Colbie CAILLAT

Quintessential Cali girl Caillat, just out with a second album, Breakthrough, has a beach-chic look worth covering.

Tell us your ideal image of warm-weather beauty.
I like summery style all year: golden skin, natural makeup, freshly washed hair, casual clothes and delicate jewelry.

Is your hair naturally that wavy and full of body?
Almost! I use a 2-inch curling iron for a few seconds, so my hair has a light wave. Then I brush it out, add saltwater spray, scrunch it and that's that.

How do you get it so shiny?
Sometimes I work a tablespoon of olive oil into my hair so it won't get dry. I leave it for 20 minutes, then wash.

What's your mani-pedi go-to?
I'm so not a girly girl, but I love peachy-pink or vibrant red-orange nail polishes—they match my beachy vibe.
